DRY RIDGE

Farmers Busy Between Showers—Interesting Items of Local Happenings

Altogether nearly the middle of April we are still having March wind, and rather cold weather. The men are plowing between rains. Billie Carrithers gettengumline with his tractor, looks up about six miles east Saturday, April 11, holds the record when it comes to good luck with lamb, so far ast having lost a single one. Some of our neighbors are losing quite a number even after they are a month or six weeks old. It is hoped we will have a full crop of apples and at least a few cherries and peaches, not waitin' standing the ice and snow we have had since I sent in the news from the Ridge.

School Entertainment
Our teacher Miss Ethel McMahan is planning to give an entertainment at the school house next Thursday night and as she is a spied hand at anything of this kind we feel sure it will be a most enjoyable. The school will close the following day.

Formerly Lived at Dry Ridge

The relatives and friends of Mrs. Mary Hadley Newhall were indeed shocked when the telephone and daily papers brought them the news that she had been killed accidentally by an automobile, just after alighting from a street car in the city, where she had lived since her marriage some twenty-four years ago, before that she had lived at Wilmore. She was noted for her intelligence, quick wit, and bright and disportionate devotion to her husband and only son, who was often commanded upon. Her death came while she was hurrying upstairs to meet her husband that they might do some shopping together, and he stood waiting for her, for an hour and a half after she had been killed before he was located and notified of her death. She was a first cousin to Miss Boston and her husband, Mr.

Was Native Kentuckian

We are with regret that we saw in The Jeffersonian a short notice of the death of Mr. George Summers of Indiana, he was a first cousin to my father, to him John Henry Gilliland, to Miss Elizabeth Summers and her brothers of near Eastwood. We want to thank the cousin in Indiana for the kind words in our county paper so that we relatives here might know of it.

The War Mothers of Kentucky, an organization of the women who have given up all of their government that the world might be free, have determined that the patriotic and heroic of all Kentuckians in the service of their country should be honored in a most lasting way by the building of a memorial bridge across the Kentucky River at the State Capital. This organization is most active, and the War Mothers of Kentucky, in the interest of the war, have organized a meeting to be held on May 1st, at the State Capitol, to consider the erection of a monument to the names of the soldiers and sailors who took up arms at their country's call, and

With this organization has determined that such a memorial should be in the form of a monument, to be represented by the placing of a bronze tablet for each soldier and sailor who gave his life for his country, the tablet to be inscribed with the name of the soldier and the name of the county or town he came from.

The organization of War Mothers, which is made up of units from every county of Kentucky, determined to unite in a single memorial, built by the combined efforts of the various organizations, and to have it in a most lasting way by the building of a memorial bridge across the Kentucky River at the State Capital. SPRING IS HERE BUT ARE YOU READY TO PARTAKE OF PLEASURES OFFERED?

Trutona Is Daily Winning Unstinted Praise From Hundreds for Overcoming Tired, Draggy "No-Account" Feeling So prevalent During the Present Season

Does the coming of Spring with all its pleasures mean anything to YOU? "It's all depends," may be your answer and admittedly "it does depend" — it depends upon you. If your system has withheld the exciting steps of winter that leaves in its wake so many many thousands of people with completely run-down systems.

In fact, conspicuously in the majority of those who have completely avoided the ravages of winter maladies. True, there are thousands who were stricken with attacks of influenza and still more thousands who escaped pneumonia, but WHERE IS THERE THAT DID NOT EXPERIENCE AT LEAST ONE HELLISH WINTER COLD DURING THE PAST SEASON? Remember, only a few escape pneumonia and influenza, is the heavy, winter cough or cold.

Like pneumonia and influenza, winter colds and colds tend to weaken and materially affect almost every vital organ of the body. People who have suffered a winter winter cough yet feel that their systems have escaped the strain of winter weather are sadly mistaken. If they could but grasp the facts, they would not wonder why they

STATE BUREAU

Farmers Federation Gaining Fast
—Membership Of Great Importance to Farmers.

More than five hundred new members a week is the pace of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation and the campaign for members in many counties has hardly begun, but now comes the time when it is time to turn back to the work, while in other sections, no membership work has been attempted because of their adverse condition. But roads are getting in good shape again, the "flu" is rapidly disappearing, so there is no reason to wait for a big jump. Then, too, it must be remembered that some counties have not yet organized.

Something of the future of the Federation in Kentucky can be forecasted from the results in other states. Illinois, for instance, has jumped from 50,000 members to 70,000 members in the first anniversary year of the American Farm Bureau Federation in Chicago on March 3. At that time the state of Iowa in point of farmers enrolled, was second to Illinois. And Iowa county bureaus have been making strides since then and will continue to do so.

"Every farmer in the state is a member of the Federation" is a slogan in that state.

This Federator reminds us more of those who have not yet organized than Eastern. The old Easter basket visited many homes in this part of the country to entertain the little ones, who enjoyed hunting for eggs, but the young men of this young folks of Whitley were disappointed Easter day when they made their plan to have a big Louisville Easter dinner, but the inclement weather made their hopes fade away.

Misses Lizzie and Sally Tennill and their mother, Mrs. Euseie Swearingen of Mt. Washington. They attended the annual meeting of the farmers and by education, legislation and other honorable means to promote the largest good for all.

In all the history of America there has not been held a meeting fraught with such a good spirit as the assembling of the American Farm Bureau Federation on March 3 in Chicago.

The farms will be organized and could not be brought to a point of co-operation with other farmers has been done in a short time. Many people had come to believe it as a truth. But the farmers of the United States have upset that idea completely.

One million and twenty thousand ($1,20,000) was the membership on March 3, and the farmers of the United States having joined hands through their local County Farm Bureaus with their State Federation and the American Farm Bureau Federation.

And it must be remembered that since the new bureaus have been organized have been rolling up their full quotas of new members.

The Federator means his mission in working for the farmers of the country was demonstrated when the Exeter Fair was opened on Saturday, April 11, and the farmers of the state should be set up without delay a business organization, under the direction of trained experts, with division of labor.

PLEASE, UNCLE SAM HELP SAVE THE PAPER

The paper situation is becoming more and more alarming. Some of the big daily papers are cooperating in an effort to eliminate some of the demand by cutting own the size of big superfluous Sunday editions, while others seem to disregard the seriousness of the situation. There seems to be no surplus of news print paper what ever and many publishers are facing suspension of their papers.

Some members of both houses of Congress are apparently beginning to view the situation as it really is and are endeavoring to bring about relief. It is evident that a program of conservation must be worked out.
We suggest to our friends in Washington that the most important item is at the government printing plant at Washington, where tons and tons of paper are wasted every year. When a senator or representative makes a longwinded political speech in Congress it printed at government expense in large pamphlet form and franked thru the mails to every corner of the country, and in most instances, to people who don't care a snap for its contents.

Latest Movie House.
New York has in building a moving picture theater seating capacity of 3,000, which may easily be the largest of its kind anywhere. Judging by the heavy patronage in other such places, the new house may be rated as the chief performances. The public is seeking professional entertainment as never before.

Not worried very much about the High Cost of Living, are they? And why should they be? Jack gets the same amount of sugar or potato at present day prices as when they cost twice as much.

And when you buy candy, cakes, tooth powder, shaving soap and all other needs at cost, plus only ten percent. This gives room to an athletic and entertainment fund, furnishing him with movie films, athletic equipment, and other play time necessities, for nothing.

It's a hard life; that's the reason the fellow in the picture took up worried.

THE JEFFERSONIAN, DEVOTED ENTIRELY TO JEFFERSON COUNTY

LIBRARIANS JOIN FIGHT ON UNREST

American Library Association inaugurates Nation-wide "Books for Everybody" Movement.

WILL AID FOREIGN BORN.
Social Problems Can Be Solved by Teaching American Ideals and Traditions.

The spirit of unrest that has been sweeping the country indicates that the foreign born, who have flock to the United States from every corner of the globe have not been given the proper opportunity to assimilate. The opinion of the 4,000 librarians who make up the American Library Association and who are now scattered in a thousand libraries throughout the nation, is that the foreign born should be put in the breeding pen. The effort is a concerted movement to carry out the Enhanced Program which the association has adopted.

This new appointment of the nation-wide director of foreign born in the United States and of this number six million do not read or speak the English language. One phase of the Enhanced Program is to bring the individual and trustees together with the view of furnishing the proper books in sufficient numbers to carry the message of American ideals and traditions to this vast army of unformed people. They have been largely dependent upon the foreign press for their writings and news. Many of them, with their fingers on the pulse of current events are firmly convinced that a sound education in American literature can easily bring them the proper form if the proper literature is placed within their reach in a language they can understand.

No Choice to Be Made.
In order to carry out the Enhanced Program six million dollars will be required. This money will not be sought through the medium of a campaign, but rather through contributions obtained through the individual efforts of the librarians, library trustees and friends of the Association. The American Library Association has been working toward the adoption of each of the cardinal points in the Program which will extend the activities of the county library system to the extension of the more industrial and business libraries. It now has in operation book lists to the United States Marine Station, Coast Guard, Lightning Service, Bureau of Fisheries and the United States Public Health Service. The needs of the 7,500 blind persons in the United States are being met by the National Library of the Blind, which has a large number of books available to satisfy the special needs and the joys of good literature.

Dipping Chickens for Lice Likely to Become More General Than Dipping Cattle Because Pest Is More Numerous.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

"Dip that chick!" It is not just done for the sake of making a rhyme for "dip that tick," either. Dipping chick louse is a more widely distributed pest than dipping cattle, because the chicken louse is a more widely distributed insect than the cattle tick. The United States Department of Agriculture has been trying to get rid of the chicken louse by dusting with dry sodium fluoride. It was effective but in the case of some breeds it did not work. The use of sodium fluoride to the gallon of water, which should be at a temperature of 70 to 80 degrees. The dipping should be done on a daily basis. The old way of dusting off chicken lice was by dipping with dry sodium fluoride. It was effective but in the case of some breeds it did not work. Recent dipping proves successful, and the results promise a sure and speedy means of getting rid of one of the worst pests of poultry.

MORE BOOKS FOR BLIND.

American Library Association Behind Movement to Bring Good Literature to the Blind.

In the Dark

There are between 600,000 and 700,000 people in the United States who are blind. The American Library Association has adopted a uniform Braille type which is intended to be used in all publications resulting in that nation-wide standardization. The American Library Association has also adopted products of its Enhanced Program the recommendation of the use of additional volumes. It has already succeeded in getting the state legislatures to banish the licensing of blind persons to teach reading and writing. Books for Everybody" movement a fund of $100,000 will be raised by a campaign to be conducted by a committee of the previous year. Profits from the sale of books will be used for the benefit of the libraries, library trustees and friends of libraries.

Shoemakers Wax a Liquid.

It is always possible to draw a straight line from the connection between a liquid and a solid. Shoemakers wax, which is so brittle that it is often broken when it is bent, is actually a liquid. To show this place leads bulletins where a sheet of shoemakers wax is the most important article in the world.

At the end of a month the wax will be found floating upon the sheet of wax instead of beneath it and the bulletins will be at the bottom as in a liquid.

POULTRY

TO RAISE HEALTHY CHICKENS

Lack of Vige in Newly Hatched Chickens is Often Traceable to Weakness of Parents.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

To be successful in raising chickens it is necessary to have healthy and vigorous brooding stock, and lack of vigor in the new chicks is often traceable to weak parents.

Only the most vigorous and the best growing birds should be put in the breeding pen. Chick birds should be fed on grain and meat and free from any serious deformity. Yearling hens are usually better than pullets for breeders, for the reason that the hen is more likely to lay and many eggs during the early winter, and consequently do not reduce their vitality so much before the breeding season. Young hens 2 to 4 years old can often be successfully retained in the breeding yard. The male bird chosen should be young and active. An early hatched, well-developed cockerel is usually satisfactory.

Market white-shelled and brown shaded eggs in separate packages.

Ship or deliver eggs at least twice or three times weekly.

Call the flock so as to eliminate the early molters and other unprofitable producers.

Inertile eggs will withstand better than fertile eggs.

Market hens which do not wish to carry longer as soon as they stop laying begin to molt in the late summer or fall.

Healthy and Vigorous Farm Flock.

opened cockerel is usually satisfactory, especially for brooding or 2-year-old cock may be chosen. The hens used for breeding purposes should be given the best care possible; they should be provided with large runs and should not be forced for heavy egg production during the early winter.

UP-TO-DATE SUMMER HOUSES

Colony Plan of Housing Poultry May Adopted to Advantage on a Grand Number of Farms.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The colony farm or partial open front house is considered to be the best type for most sections. The colony plan of housing poultry should be adopted and adapted on many farms.

The colony farm is a good example of the dousing material being inevitably lost. Recent dipping proves successful, and the results promise a sure and speedy means of getting rid of one of the worst pests of poultry.

BOOKS FOR EVERYBODY!

Four Thousand Librarians Members of the American Library Association in Nation Wide Movement.

Since the advent of the peace American Library Association has turned from war work into other channels. With the co-operation of the government and the co-operation of the public, 4,000 active librarians in all parts of the country are working to increase the reading habit in all ways.

This is the first year of the campaign and it has the confidence and the ad-assurance that the "Books for Everybody" movement will not be carried on by the librarians, library trustees and friends of libraries but by the public in obtaining the necessary support.

Mr. J. F. Priest, president of the American Library Association, said in his message for the campaign: "We are most pleased to hold up this banner of the movement for the benefit of the country and in the fight for wider knowledge is a force to be reckoned with."

Birthday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waldrige entertained Easter Sunday in honor of the seventy-eighth birthday of Mr. Waldrige's mother. Those present were: Mrs. Ernest Moore, Mrs. Wm. Wadsworth, Bloomsfield, Ky.; W. P. Waldrige, Taylorsville, Ky.; Robert Waldrige, Fairmont Ky.; Henry Waldrige, Mrs. George Yean Louisville, Ky.; Mr. John Waldrige, Waterford, Ky.; Mr. Dave Waldrige, Misses Mahala, Lucille and Vena Waldrige, Mechanicsville, Ky.; Mr. Walter Homer, Robert and Charles Arthur Waldrige. Callers in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. George McCollough, Jr., Mrs. Elizabeth and Louise McCollough, Helen Staney and Lucille Waller and Master Bud McCollough, all of Taylorsville. Little girls Misses McCollough and Waller gave us some musical entertainment while Mr. McCollough sang and prayed with us (which was very much enjoyed). The table was just loaded with "goodies" and all departed wishing Mrs. Waldrige many happy returns.

Mrs. J. B. Ward entertained Mrs. W. M. Dill, Mrs. William and Mrs. Verna Waldrige, Mrs. John and Charles Arthur Waldrige. Callers in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. George McCollough, Sr., Mrs. Elizabeth and Louise McCollough, Helen Staney and Lucille Waller and Master Bud McCollough, all of Taylorsville.

The Misses Schneider were recent guests of Miss Verna Waldrige. Am sure "Bunny" was too good to me as I feel too tired to try to think of anything else.

ANNUAL SWEET CLOVER;
NEW PLANT HIRED MAN

Testing the New Plant
Having become satisfied with this annual Sweet clover to a greater extent than its power to reproduce its similar characteristics, the Iowa Station proceeded to collect a second and fully test the clover. This seed was sent in small quantities all over this country, and from Denmark to Australia. It has given good results in all countries. It will grow in from three to four months, and growing from 3 to seven feet high depending on soil and conditions. A report from Hawaii shows that they grew two crops in the season, the first produced seed in the fall and the second produced seed in the first crop. The first avowedly did not flower, the second 45% with fully open flowers for bloom by the last of November. The plants were very large, plow down easily, and were easily mowing strains which may be developed.

A Promising Crop
On the whole, it seems to us that this is the plant we have been looking for. The plant is strong, it would seem as if this clover is to serve as the unusual nitrogen manure. It may not seed fully as far North as Canada, though there are early maturing strains which may be developed.

Planting
The cost of seed is very little. The cost of labor is also very little. We shall live to learn more about this "weed" of today is the wealth of tomorrow. The annual Sweet clover is as the trotting horse to the oxen as compared with the slow, heavy, plodding horse.

Cox for President

Those Democrats in Kentucky who believe that Governor James M. Cox of Ohio because of his great ability and superior qualifications should be the next President of the United States, have decided to lay his claims before our Democratic voters with the hope that they will join us in securing delegates to the San Francisco convention, who will favor his nomination.

To secure a delegation from Kentucky to San Francisco it is first necessary that all Democrats who are for Cox shall attend the county mass conventions to be held in the various county seats at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday, May 1st, and see that the delegates they send to the Democratic State Convention at Louisville, Tuesday, May 4th, are COX MEN.

This is no time for factional strife within the Democratic party. The man who undertakes to create the impression that the COX MOVEMENT is a movement in the interest of any individual branch, wing or faction of the Democratic party in Kentucky, is not a well-wisher for party unity and party success.

Former United States Senator John M. Camden of Versailles has accepted the chairmanship of the organization that is being made for Governor Cox in Kentucky, and that is sufficient guarantee that the movement is not to be factional.

Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio

Senator Camden in a statement given to the press, said:

"I am for Governor Cox because I believe him to be the one man who can win against the Republicans in November. He is safe, sane and liberal, has a record in Congress, and three terms as Governor of Ohio. He is a man every inch of him, and one around whom every element in the Democratic party can rally. He began life as a newsboy and made his own way. He is a sound and successful business man, has never had any serious labor trouble during his administration."

He endorsement of Cox by Senator Camden in a statement given to the press, said:

"I am for Governor Cox because I believe him to be the best man in our party as it seems to us. That's why we are for Cox at this time and that's why we want Kentucky to be for Cox."

The COX HEADQUARTERS will be in the Seabach Hotel at Louisville where communications from all who are interested in behalf of this great man should be addressed, and where all Democrats will be welcome.
